County in Arkansas Eligible For USDA Emergency Farm Loans

Washington, D. C., July 29, 2003 -- President Bush declared a Major disaster in Tennessee based on damages and losses caused by severe storms, high winds, and heavy rain, that occurred from July 21 through July 22, 2003.

The following Arkansas county is also eligible because it is contiguous to the disaster declared counties in Tennessee:

Crittenden

Farmers in the disaster area have until March 29, 2004, to apply for the loans to help cover part of their actual losses. To be eligible, producers must have suffered a physical loss or at least a 30-percent loss of normal production in a single enterprise, be able to repay the loan and any other loans, be unable to obtain credit elsewhere, and have adequate security.

Additional information regarding eligibility and other loan requirements may be obtained by contacting your local FSA county office. The Farm Service Agency is an Equal Opportunity Lender.
